

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, January 11. 1707.

London, January 11.

Yesterday arriv'd the Mail from Holland of Tuesday last.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Jan. 18.

Turin, January 1.

THE Baron de Schulembourg, Major General in the Service of his Royal Highness, set out from hence 2 Days ago for Saorgio, in order to observe the Motions which the French seem to design to make in the County of Nice. Prince Eugene is expected here, before he goes for Vienna: The Princess Louise his Sister, is come hither from Savigliano where she usually resides, to see her Brother.

Milan, Jan. 4. The Duke of Savoy augments his Forces considerably, and makes great Preparations, to besiege Suza 'tis suppos'd, in order to shut up that Passage against the French. The Garrison of our Castle consisting but of 400 reform'd Officers and as many Soldiers, 'tis probable it will not hold out long if the Project of forming 3 Attacks against it be put in Execution: 'Tis certain all the necessary Preparations are making for forming the Siege of it with all Expedition. The overflowing of the Po much incommodes Valenza, the Garrison of which Place begin to want several things.

Dresden, Jan. 8. King Augustus has given Audience to several foreign Ministers, who have complimented him on the Peace. The 6th Instant his Majesty went to Alt-Ranstad the King of Sweden's Quarters, and after they had din'd together in publick, they had a long Conference together. The Estates of this Electorate and the incorporated Provinces use great Endeavours to make an Accommodation with the Swedes for Contributions: The Swedes have already receiv'd 3 or 4 Millions, and demand 19000 Crowns more, without reckoning Forrage and Provisions for the Subsistence of their Army. M. Imhoff and some others have been deputed to represent the Impossibility of satisfying these Demands, but have hitherto obtain'd nothing. The Departure of King Stanislaus for Poland, is put off for some Days: 'Tis said Colonel Gorz has order to accompany him to the Upper Poland with a Detachment of 2000 Swedes. The Princes James and Constantine Sobieski are preparing to go to Olau near Breslau in Silesia. The Swedes continue to raise Men with all Diligence throughout this Country, to recruit their Troops; so that they will have a very good Army by the beginning of the Spring.

Strasbourg, Jan. 10. 'Tis rumour'd here, that the King of France will take up his Residence at Cambray in the Spring; that the Dauphin will command in Flanders, and under him the Prince of Conti; the Duke of Orleans and the Marshal Catinat in Italy; the Duke of Vendome and the Count de Bezons in Spain; and the Marshal de Villars on the Rhine.

Paris, Jan. 10. 'Tis the publick Talk at Court, that the Campaign will be open'd early in Catalonia; and that the Duke of Berwick and the Duke de Noailles will enter it, the former by the Kingdom of Valencia, the other by Roussillon. The Court seem likewise to have resolv'd, to act offensively on the Rhine, while the Duke of Vendome makes Head against the Allies in Flanders with an Army sufficient to cover the Pais conquis. The Lieutenant Generals nominated to serve under him, have receiv'd Orders to get ready to be going thither forthwith.

Paris, Jan. 14. 'An Exprez from General Medavi has brought Advice to Court, that he can subsist his Troops in the Mantuan no longer.

Cologne, Jan. 14. The Bishop of Osnabrug is raising Men in our Neighbourhood and in Westphalia, for the Emperour's Service 'tis suppos'd.

Liege, Jan. 14. They write from Paris, that 'twas rumour'd there had been an Action in Spain, wherein 3000 French were kill'd; that the Speech of the first President at the Opening of the Parliament of Paris, was by some judg'd to be seditious; and that a Lampion had been affix'd on the King's Statue in the Place des Victoires, behind which Statue stands Victory holding a Laurel over the King's Head, the last Distich of which Lampion was

Nunc vix aspiciens, dubius, discernere possis

An Dea dat Laurum, tollere numve velit.

The Sence of which is, that those who now look upon that Statue, are doubtful whether Victory is putting the Laurel on the King's Head, or taking it off.

Hague, Jan. 18. Letters from Lisbon by the Way of England have brought Orders to the Minister of Portugal here, to assure the States that the new King his Master will maintain the Alliances contracted by the late King his Father, and exert his best Efforts for carrying on the War. That Minister executed those Orders Yesterday. Either he has not yet receiv'd Letters of Notification of the Death of the late King, for the States; or he defers presenting them till he has put himself and Retinue into deep Mourning. It continues to be believ'd here, that the 10000 Saxons offer'd by King Augustus, and which he desires may serve together and not be separated, will be taken into the Service of the Allies and sent to the Upper Rhine. Yesterday the Minister of Trier, receiv'd Letters from the Circle of Swabia (for whom he transacts the Business they have here,) directing him to represent to the States the Necessity of having a watchful Eye to the Enemy on that side: They write him Word, that the Enemy make great Preparations in Alsace, and that they have Intelligence they intend to draw some Troops thither from the Netherlands, to execute some important Design: Yesterday that Minister represented all this to the Congress; and the like Advice being come from other Hands, the States are deliberating about renewing their Exhortations to the Princes and Circles of the Empire. We have Advice, that the Duke of Mantua has sent to Vienna to make an Accommodation with that Court. The Duke de Moles and the Prince de Soubize are made Cardinals.

EDIN.

EDINBURGH.

Minutes of the Proceedings in Parliament, Friday Jan. 3. The Parliament resum'd the Consideration of the debate anent the qualification of Writers to the Signet before they can be named ordinary Lords of Session. And after some further debate as to the time they are to serve as Writers before they can be capable to be named Lords, there were two States of a Vote offer'd, the 1st in these Terms, Whether they shall serve Twenty Years or none; and the 2d in these Terms, Whether they are to serve 8 or 10 Years. And after some reasoning which of the Two should be the State of the Vote 1st or 2d, the Vote was put 1st or 2d, and it carried 2d. Thereafter the Vote was put 8 or 10 Years, and it carried 10 Years. Then a Motion was made for an Additional Clause in relation to the qualification of Writers in these Terms, With this Provision, that no Writer to the Signet be capable to be admitted Lord of the Session unless he undergo a Private and Publick Tryal on the Civil Law, before the Faculty of Advocates, and be found by them qualified for the abovesaid Office Two Years before they shall be named to be a Lord of the Session. And after reasoning thereon, the Vote was stated, add the Clause or not. But before Voting it was moved, that the qualifications made, or to be made, for capacitating Persons to be named Ordinary Lords of Session, shall be alterable by the Parliament of Great Britain; and after debate it was put to the Vote, alterable or not, and it carried alterable. Then the Vote was put, add the Clause in relation to the qualification of Writers, and it carried add. Thereafter the 2d Clause of the 19th Article of Union, in relation to the Courts of Judicatory, was read and agreed to. And the 3d Clause, in relation to the Admiralty, was also read and agreed to. Thereafter the other Clauses of the said 19th Article, in relation to the Court of Exchequer and other Courts, and also the remainder of the Article, was read and agreed to. Then the Vote was put, approve of the 19th Article as amended or not, and it carried approve.

Minutes of the Proceedings in Parliament, Saturday Jan. 4. The Petition of John Henry Hugutan, craving to be Naturaliz'd, and also craving a Protection, was read; and after debate upon it, as to the granting Protection, it was moved, that a Deliverance shall be granted thereon in these Terms, 'That for the better enabling the Petitioner to satisfy his Debts, Protection be granted for the space of 7 Years to his Person, Goods and Estate, hereditable and movable, against such Crediters and the Effect and Diligence on such Debts as have been contracted before April 1705; excepting such Crediters and Debts as have contracted to any of the Subjects of Her Majesty's Dominions, or Subjects of Her Allies, contracted originally to them, as which shall be made appear to the Crediters to have been transferr'd to them bona fide and for adequat onerous Causes for the 12th of December past: Providing always the Petitioner reside within this Kingdom during the time of his Protection. And after further debate, it was put to the Vote, grant Protection to the Petitioner in the above Terms, or delay till the Act for his Naturalization get a 2d reading; and it carried grant Protection in the above Terms.

AT the Theatre Royal in Drury-Lane, this present Saturday, being the 11th of January, will be presented the Opera of Camilla. And on Monday next, being the 13th of January, will be reviv'd a Comedy, call'd, The Sea Voyage, or, A Commonwealth of Women. Not Acted these Six Years, written by Beaumont and Fletcher. With Entertainments of Singing and Dancing, as will be express'd in the Bills.

At the Desire of several Ladies of Quality.
By her Majesty's Company of Comedians.

AT the Queen's Theatre in the Hay-Market, this present Saturday, being the 11th of January, will be presented the Tragedy of Hamlet Prince of Denmark. The parts of Hamlet by Mr. Wilks, the King by Mr. Keene, Horatio by Mr. Verbruggen, Laertes by Mr. Booth, the Grave-maker by Mr. Johnson, Oftrick by Mr. Bowen, Ophelia by Mrs. Bracegirdle. These Plays are Sold by J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, and B. Lintott next Nando's Coffee-House, Temple-Bar.

Run away from the Right Honourable the Lord Ashburnham's at Great Park in Bedfordshire, on Wednesday the 8th Instant, Robert Tucker, his Lordship's under Coachman; he is of a middle Stature but slender, hath a down Look, pale yellowish flat Face, small Legs, somewhat above 30, wears a light T. wny bob Wig, his Speech slow and loud. Whoever secures him, giving notice to his Lordship's Porter in Westminster, or at Great Park aforesaid, shall receive one Guinea Reward and Charges, the said Fellow being guilty of several Crimes and Villanies.

Lost on Thursday the 9th Instant, between 6 and 7 a Clock in the Evening, from a House in Ironmonger-Lane, A small brown and white Spaniel Birch with 4 white Feet and a white Tail a little knawed, brown Ears and white down her Forehead and round her Mouth. Whoever brings her to Waghorn's Coffee-house in Pope's-head Alley, shall have 5 s. Reward.

This Day at Grigsbys Coffee-house in Thread-needle-street near the Royal Exchange, at 4 in the Evening, will continue the Sale of a Collection of very valuable Books, amongst which are Plutarch's Lives, 5 Vol. Turkish Spy, 8 Vol. Hudibras, Collier of the Stage, Owen's Pieces, in 16 Vol. Smith's Sermons with his Life, Nichol's Conference, 5 Vol. Turner of Religions, Puffendorf's Introduction, Lessly's Snake in the Grass with all the Answers, Eschard's Rom. Hist 5 Vol. Catalogues to be had at the Place of Sale, with the Catalogues of the Libri Omnia.

A Catalogue of a Curious Collection of valuable Books in Greek, Latin, French, Italian and English, in Divinity, History, Travels, Poetry, Physick and Fortification; most of the Books Bound, Gilt Back and Letter'd, being the Library of the late Lord Arundel, which will be sold by Auction at the Oxford Coffee-house without Temple-Bar, on Wednesday the 15th of January, 1707. By D. Mortier. Catalogues are distributed gratis by Edw. Castle at Scotland-yard Gate near Whitehall, David Mortier in the Strand at the Sign of Erafmus's Head near the Fountain-Tavern, J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, Mr. Horn at the South Entrance of the Royal Exchange, R. Smith without Temple-Bar, and at the Oxford Coffee-house the Place of Sale. The Books may be view'd 3 days before the Sale begins.

Two Houses of Goods to be Sold, being the Goods of Mr. Wm Keith near Hungerford-Market Goldsmith, and Mr. George How, to be sold by Auction on Tuesday the 14th of this Instant January, at the corner House of Copthall-Court in Throgmorton-street, beginning at 8 a Clock in the Forenoon. The Goods to be seen and Catalogues to be had this day, and Monday, before the Sale.

This Day is publish'd, An Ode to the Sun for the New-Year. Printed for Jacob Tonson within Grays-Inn-Gate next Grays-Inn-Lane.

This Day is publish'd, A Sermon Preach'd Dec. 31. 1706. Being the Day of Solemn Thanksgiving for the Glorious Successes of the last Campaign. By Joshua Oldfield, V. D. M. Printed for J. Lawrence at the Angel in the Poultry. In 4to.

Just publish'd, A Poem upon the late Glorious Successes of Her Majesty's Arms, &c. Humbly Inscrib'd to the Right Honourable the Earl of Godolphin, Lord High Treasurer of England. By Henry Rowe Esq; Printed for Jacob Tonson, within Gray's-Inn-Gate next Grays-Inn-Lane.

Just Publish'd, The History of Greece, Vol. I. Containing the space of about 1660 Years, from the first Plantation of Greece to the Peloponnesian War. By Tho. Hind, M. A. of Lincoln College in Oxford, 8vo. Printed for A. and J. Churchill, S. and J. Sprint, T. Childs, and Robert Knaplock.

The Universal English Dictionary, containing an Account of the Original and various Significations of all hard Words deriv'd from other Languages, as now made use of in our English Tongue; together with an Explication of all Terms relating to any of the Arts and Sciences either Liberal or Mechanical. To which is added, an Interpretation of the proper Names of Men and Women, with those of Writs and Processes at Law; also the Greek and Latin Names of divers sorts of Animals, Plants, Metals, and Minerals, &c. and several other Remarkable Matters more particularly express'd in the Preface. The 6th Edition Revis'd Corrected, and Improv'd, with the Addition of near 20000 Words not mention'd in the former Impressions, which renders it the Completest Book of this Nature that ever was Extant. A Work very necessary for Strangers as well as our own Countrymen, in order to the Right understanding of what they Speak, Write, or Read. Printed for J. Taylor at the Ship in St. Paul's Church-yard, Folio, price 1 l.

ADVERTISEMENT.

A Vindication of the Rights and Privileges of the Christian Church, in which are defended, The divine Charter of its Incorporation, The divine Institution of its Ministry, Its Authority in Ordination, Discipline, and Censures; and the consistency of all these with the Supremacy of the Civil Magistrate: In Answer to a late Book Intitul'd, The Rights of the Christian Church Asserted, &c. By John Turner, D. D. Vicar of Greenwich. Printed for John Wyat at the Rose in St. Paul's Church-yard.

A Companion for the Country Malster, or the whole Art of Gauging Malt in the Cistern, on the Couch, and in the Chamber, plainly laid down, and the Duty Chargeable by Act of Parliament on any quantity of Wet Barley, by several easie Rules readily discover'd. With two useful Tables exactly Calculated, the first turning any Number of solid Inches into Bushels. The other shewing what Duty any Number of Bushels is chargeable with, and must pay after deduction of the fifth part. By William Barnes of Bishops-Stortford. Printed for Robert Knaplock at the Angel and Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard. Price 1 s.

The Revolution of Sweden, a Tragedy, as it is Acted at the Queen's Theatre in the Hay-Market. Printed for J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, price 1 s. 6 d. where may be had the Conquest of Granada, the Spanish Fryar, the Modish Husband, Squire of Alsatia, Bury Fair, Aurengzebe, Double Dealer, Way of the World, and Fortune Hunters, &c.

LONDON: Printed, and sold by Sam. Buckley at the Dolphin in Little-Britain.